

I'd like to express my concern about recent FCC intent to limit weather and traffic reporting via XM radio. In the area I live and work, access to timely and accurate weather and traffic reporting is limited, I pay for this service through XM Radio and wish to continue access to this vital information.

Mark Johnstone